Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

☞ ANNUAL CONTRIBUTIONS — CALL ON THE FRIENDS OF PEACE. The following statement from the Society's Executive Committee can not fail, at the present time, to attract special attention : —

Our Society, in May last, recommended a special increase of its operations, as much needed; and its Committee at once took measures for this purpose, with very encouraging prospects up to the time when our Corresponding Secretary, hitherto our chief reliance in raising funds, was suddenly taken ill, under his accumulated labors, near the first of November, and must, for six or twelve months at least, cease from his usual services. We must, therefore, rely on our friends for help in this emergency. December is the usual time for their annual collections and remittances; and we beg to make the following special requests:—

1. That Pastors will, some time in December, or in January at farthest, bring the subject before their people, for contribution in some form. Some churches do this regularly every year, and we should rejoice if they would all do so. However small in each case, the total might render important aid.

2. That our regular contributors will not forget to forward their usual donations, varying commonly from $1 to $10 and more. The sum for membership is $2 a year, which we trust none will delay to forward. Where arrearages are due, may we not hope for them also?

3. That individuals receiving the Advocate of Peace as subscribers, will forward the small sum requisite for this purpose; small for each one, but making an aggregate we cannot well lose. Our members and contributors receive the Advocate of Peace without further charge.

If all our friends would kindly bear in mind these requests without delay, it would be a relief in this hour of our need, especially if our largest and most reliable supporters will promptly remember us. The cause can have only what its friends shall give it; and the result of this appeal must in part decide what can be done for its further prosecution.

By direction of the Executive Committee of the American Peace Society.

L. T. STODDARD, Chairman,
G. C. BECKWITH, Cor. Secretary,
W. C. BROWN, Rec. Secretary.

BOSTON, Dec. 15, 1855.

NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—From the date of the Secretary's illness, J. P. BLANCHARD, Esq., whose familiarity with the whole subject of our cause is well known as fitting him for the service, has kindly consented to undertake the care of the Advocate of Peace.

TERMS.—Advocate of Peace, monthly, 16 pp. one vol. in two years; $1.00 in advance.

Book of Peace, 12mo., 606 pp. . .	$1.00	Hancock on Peace, - - -	25c
Tracts, unbound at 12pp. for a cent,		Dymond on War, - - -	20c
Upham on Peace, ...	25	Peace Manual, paper covers, 19 — cloth,	25c

Jay's Review of Mexican War, cloth 50c.; paper covers, 30. Livermore, do. A liberal discount for re-sale, or gratuitous distribution.

AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY'S OFFICE, 21 Cornhill, Boston. GEO. C. BECKWITH, Corresponding Secretary. WM. C BROWN, Office Agent.

POSTAGE.—In Mass., ¾ cent a quarter, or 3 cents a year; elsewhere in U. S., double this.